

PLUGGING THE LEAKS

In Your Supply Chain

Where are all the time and money going? Could there be a leak in your supply chain? The truth is, the time and money you need are slipping away though poor business practices and inefficiencies. Like a house with poor insulation, or plumbing that leaks, you're losing the things that would make your business really profitable: control, accountability, visibility, efficiency and service.

According to an article in the Harvard Business Review, "...the performance of many supply chains has never been worse. In some cases, costs have risen to unprecedented levels because of adversarial relations between supply chain partners as well as dysfunctional industry practices such as an overreliance on price promotions. One recent study of the US food industry estimated that poor coordination among supply chain partners was wasting $30 billion annually." With that kind of loss, how do you plug the leaks and start seeing savings again?

STOPPING THE LOSS—The only way to stop the loss and reclaim your profitability is by consolidating all your vendors into one system, and the only way to do that efficiently is through an online tool called Your Supply Center™. Your Supply Center—offered exclusively by CoreXpand™—consolidates all the elements of your supply chain into one web site, giving you a single online view of all your products, supplies, vendors and budgets in one place with one system. And it does this with no IT involvement, with very little effort on your part, and at a very modest price. Not only will you stop the leaks, you'll also gain back the control, accountability, visibility, efficiency and service you were missing. Plus, through our network of prime vendors, you'll be able to reduce your supply spend by 15-25%.

SIMPLE SOLUTIONS THAT PAY FOR THEMSELVES—The truth is, your present system already has the money to pay for Your Supply Center hidden within its inefficiencies. The time and money you'll save by having a system that really works will more than pay for the Your Supply Center tool, and give you time to spend where you're needed most. Can you afford to continue pouring money into a system that leaks? Your Supply Center is the online tool managers have been seeking to make supply ordering easy to manage, easy to coordinate and easy to afford. And it's ready to go today!
